JUNIOR SOCCER PROGRAM by KICK START SPORTS

The Junior Soccer program is a skill-based program that is designed to develop children's ability to play soccer. The courses are available for children ages 4 to 11 (boys and girls) who are keen and enthusiastic. Mini soccer goals are used to create the proper setting and children are let loose at the end of each session to try out their new skills.

SOCCER KIDS AGES 3-5 YEARS

This program provides the basics of soccer in a fun and stimulating learning environment by using various fun related games. Fun, fun, fun, is the aim of the program.

SOCCER SCHOOL AGES 6-11 YEARS

The course provides children with the fundamentals of the game and helps them to put their skills into practice. Running, passing and shooting the ball as well as turns and moves allowing for children to create time and space.

AWARD SCHEME

Each level has an award that is presented to the player of the day. This player is given a medal that can be taken home for one week. The medal is given to boys or girls that show good sportsmanship, listening skills and tries their hardest throughout the lesson. A 'Most Improved Player' trophy will be awarded at the end of each term to the player who has shown the most improvement. A "Player of the Program" award will be given at the end of each term.
